Deposit Slip for Mailing Checks and Money Orders over $3,000

Making a deposit is easy. Other ways to deposit are: Photo check deposit (for less than $3,000), paycheck direct deposit, or linking to an external account.

1. Ensure we can accept and process your check(s) and money order(s).

- Checks must be in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank. Unfortunately, checks drawn on foreign banks cannot be processed.
- We can only accept checks, money orders, and cashier's checks made payable to the account holder.

2. Endorse the back of the check(s) or money order(s), write "For Deposit Only", and include your account number.

3. Complete, print, and mail the deposit slip below and don't forget to include your check(s) or money order(s).

- Print the deposit slip below and keep one for your own records.
- Enter the Total Deposit Amount in the space provided below.
- Mail the completed deposit slip with your check(s) or money order(s) to the P.O. Box address below.

Other important information.

- A deposit slip ensures timely receipt of your account credit. Without it, you may experience delays in the crediting of your account.
- This form is for deposits into your checking account only.
- Please do not send cash. Cash deposits by mail are not accepted.
- Third-party checks (checks or drafts payable to someone other than the account holder), or checks made payable to a business, are not accepted.
- Log in to T-Mobile MONEY and select "Add Money" to see other deposit options that are fast, easy and convenient for deposits under $3,000.
